Name _____   Date_____

Lesson 21: Mathematical Area Problems

1. Create an area model to represent this product: $(x + 4)(x + 2)$.

2. Write two different expressions that represent the area.

3. Explain how each expression represents different information about the situation.

4. Show that the two expressions are equal using the distributive property.